Gwynne Spencer (Children's Literature)

A little girl and her dad make heart-shaped shortbread cookies from scratch (called "tea hearts") for her class at school. When mom returns from her business trip, she and her daughter enjoy a tea party with the few tea hearts that were saved. Mom gives her daughter a necklace with a heart-shaped cookie cutter, and the reader gets one, too, with the book. 1995, Workman Publishing, $12.95. Ages 5 to 12.
